

CONSTRUCTION HISTORY SOCIETY

Fourth Annual Conference 7-9 April 2017

Queens' College, Cambridge.

Call for Abstracts

Deadline 30 September 2016

The Construction History Society is delighted to announce its first national congress to be held on Friday and Saturday the 7th and 8th April 2017 in Queens' College, Cambridge. This will include paper sessions over two days, keynote speakers, and a dinner for those interested on the Saturday night in the college hall. Accommodation will be available in college for those that want to stay overnight.

ALL PAPERS ARE PUBLISHED IN THE PROCEEDINGS AS A BOOK AVAILABLE AT THE CONFERENCE

Call for Abstracts

We are calling for abstracts for papers on all aspects of construction history. Issues covered are the history of construction materials and components, buildings, infrastructure, building form, construction processes and plant, funding, organisations, company history, labour, education and historical sources. PLEASE NOTE: The conference will not include papers about the refurbishment of existing buildings or engineering calculations proving the stability of existing structures.

Abstracts should be 200-300 words and include the title of proposed paper, name of author and contact details with university affiliation (if any). It is critical that abstracts should give an indication of where the paper sits within current literature on the subject and how the paper makes a contribution to the subject.

All abstracts should be submitted to chs@aha.cam.ac.uk

Abstracts will be peer-reviewed and the successful applicants will be asked to submit their final papers by 9 January.

All those submitting must be prepared to attend the conference and present their papers in person. This is a condition of inclusion in the proceedings.

Any queries please contact Dr James Campbell (jwpc2@cam.ac.uk)
